

The Sun Will Always Float.

when i worry about getting teased and people being mean to me, i remember,
the sun will always float.

when i'm afraid of being alone and no one else is there,
i remember,
the sun will always float.

when i'm sad because i've lost a friend who had to die too soon,
i remember,
the sun will always float.

and when i'm just plain scared,
i remember,
the sun will always float.
